CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27, 1837. The House was occupied throughout the enthe session of Tuesday in the discussion of the inution of Mr.Adams on the "Peace Memorial," praya ... Congrere to adopt a favorable consideration of an overture on the part of the Mexican Government, in the form of a decree; for the Mr. Preston, of S. C. made a few remarks after plied, but the vicissitudes of life are various, amicable adjustment of our defficulties with that mation, or in case of a refusal on the part: of Congress to regard the decree in the light of an overture for peaceable schliement; to refer the subject of dispute to a friendly Power. A great deal of discussion took place upon the motion, and it was ex disped for further debate.
On Wednesd & the Speaker Isid before the Iffice the letters of Messes. Prentis. & Word, member elect from Mississippi, ketting forth their relationanto their souls, accompanied by certificates of their election from the Covernor

Mississippl.

Mr. Cambreleng, of New York, moved that the letter and certificate be referred to the commilleo on Contested Elections.

Mr. Bell suggested that Mr. Cambreleng wholid give spine teasons for making Buch & motion. He drew a parallel between the election of the members from Mississippi and the member from Arkensus, and said that the member from Arkensas had not resigned, but had a re-election, and had been sworn at the opening of the procedusession of Congless. Why were not the members from Mississippi sworn also? The cases were precisely similar; and yet the. metabor flow Arkensas had been re-efected, and claimed his seat upon a new election.

Mr. Yell the member from Atkensas reolied to Mr. Bell, and remarked that he saw no parallel between this case and that of the member from Mississippi. Mr. Y., however, gave no-reasen for his opinion that the cases were not of a parallel character, but said that he chose te be re-elected, and had no doubt about his reelection. He did this in justice to the people of Atkensis, and if they had not had a new election be said be should certainly have resigned.

Mr. Pope, of Kentucky, took part in the discurrion and said he was opposed to referring the subject to the Columittee on Elections, because ther committee had made up their minds on the sabject, and reported in favor of the sitting members. He wished that the whole subject should the as once brought before the flouse, to the fairly discussed by the members who claim their rests the members who have their rests, gud att the members of the House.

Mr. Claiborne, of Miss, look an honorable and nuble part in the discussion, and begged the House to give the members their seats, not as members of the House; but to discuss the ambject before the House.

'Nio discussion continued, and involved the . hole merits of the question. Messes, Bell. Red, Tillinghast, Foster, Hamer and other member-took part in it.

NEW AND VALUABLE PCHOOL

VIE attention of Jehoul Committees, Teablors Rut Parents is mysted to the extension of the "Juvenie Readen," a selection of easy Readthe Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which reyned and corrected, we have just pull shed. It is believed that the book is one which has been year ry much wanted in our common schools, and in-deed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities, and long experience in his profession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly se-lected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereoty ped, is free from the danger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books.

Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it SMITH & FENNO,
